

Lord, How Great You Are! (Psalm 104)

Stephen Pearson

$\text{♩} = 100$

Lord, how great You are! You are clothed in splen - dor and ma - jes - ty!

To Coda \oplus Dm F Am G

Lord, how great You are! You are clothed in splen - dor and ma - jes - ty! (The)

C Dm G C F G

1. You stretch forth the can - o - py on high! Your cham - bers, Lord, are vault - ed in the sky. The
 2. firm - a - ment of earth was set by Thee, cov - ered by the gar - ment of the sea. But,
 3. Ma - ny are the won - drous works we see: All that is, it has been made by Thee! Your
 4. Lord, Your glo - ry will for - ev - er be! May we ev - er sing our praise to Thee. And

C Dm G Em F 1.2.3. Dm G

clouds are made Your char - i - ots, O Lord. The winds and light - ning bear Your Word! (Lord, how) then, at Thy re - buke and Thy com - mand: the wat - ers fled, giv - ing forth dry land! (Lord, how) Spi - rit sent, all life is giv - en birth; Your breath with - drawn, all re - turns to earth! (Lord, how) may our med - i - ta - tions e'er be true, - as our lives re -

4. Dm G D.S. al Coda \oplus Coda Dm G C

joice in You! (Lord, how) great You are through-out all e - ter - ni - ty!