

Let Us Go To God's Dwelling Place (Psalm 132)

Stephen Pearson

$\text{♩} = 110$

1. Re - mem - ber Da - vid, the hard - ships he en - dured, yet this
 2. Re - mem - ber Da - vid, the oath Je - ho - vah swore: "For your
 3. "Yes, I will bless them. My boun - ty will be theirs. All their oath did he give to the Lord: "I shall not slum-ber, nor will I ev - er rest, with-out faith, I shall give you a throne. Thy horn shall pros-per; my lamp shall shine on you, and your needs, I will note and ful - fill. And my sal - va - tion shall be their song of joy: for to find - ing a home for my Lord." Let us go, to God's dwel - ling place. Let us faith - ful will be as my own." will." And my sal - va - tion shall be their song of joy: for to go, to Your house, O Lord, our God! (Re-) make for God a dwel - ling place in our hearts!

1.2. 3.