

Lord, How Great You Are! (Psalm 104)

Stephen Pearson

$\text{♩} = 100$

Dm F Am

Lord, how great You are! You are clothed in splen - dor and

G To Coda Dm

ma - jes - ty! Lord, how great You are! You are

F Am G

clothed in splen - dor and ma - jes - ty! (The)

C Dm G C F

1. You stretch forth the can - o - py on high! Your cham-bers, Lord, are vault-ed in the
 2. firm - a - ment of earth was set by Thee, cov - ered by the gar - ment of the
 3. Ma - ny are the won - drous works we see: All that is, it has been made by
 4. Lord, Your glo - ry will for - ev - er be! May we ev - er sing our praise to

G C Dm G

sky. The clouds are made Your char - i - ots, O Lord. The sea. But, then, at Thy re - buke and Thy com - mand: the Thee! Your Spi - rit sent, all life is giv - en birth; Your Thee. And may our med - i - ta - tions e'er be true, -

Em F 1.2.3. Dm G 4. Dm G D.S. al Coda

winds and light - ning bear Your Word! (Lord, how) wat - ers fled, giv - ing forth dry land! (Lord, how) breath with - drawn, all re - turns to earth! (Lord, how) as our lives re - joice in You! (Lord, how)

Coda Dm G C

great You are through-out all e - ter - ni - ty!